TESTIMONIALS

Thank you so much for the prayers from The Prayer Institute. Tom Garrett has sent us the written prayers here in Kenya and this coming Monday – during our bi-monthly staff meeting – I will introduce the Prayer for Open Arms Staff and Volunteers and we will recite the prayer together for the first time. We all look forward to watching how God moves through these prayers and will keep you informed on how God answers these prayers.

Open Arms Ministry International

We have seen God move in amazing ways and answer prayers in ways that are “abundantly more than we could ever ask or imagine” since His servants at the Prayer Institute started praying for our organization. We have learned about prayer, we have witnessed the power of prayer and we are energized and inspired to grow our personal prayer lives as a result of our association with The Prayer Institute. We thank God for sending this ministry to us to teach us, disciple us and minister to us.

The Prayer Institute came to the Apartment complex and started a weekly Bible Study with the women who live in the area. The women in this underserved community were very excited and enjoyed the Bible Study. The Prayer Institute was so professional in their set up with their own equipment, their delivery, and with a proven curriculum. We look forward to having many more Bible Studies with The Prayer Institute.

“Exclusively For You”

Have you ever faced a day in the office when you would throw up your hands and say, “God help me!”? This reaction could be due to a major decision awaiting your response, meeting a project deadline, addressing personnel issues, hiring new staff or dealing with difficult clients or supervisors.

Whatever the reason, we recognize that sometimes we just need prayer. We believe that prayer answers all things, can give us hope, empower us with wisdom and strength, and most importantly, give us peace to make the right decisions we are faced with daily. God is concerned about the corporate marketplace, and He has plans for its Scriptural success.

With great respect for the corporate and business community, The Prayer Institute offers a program called The Corporate Connection that has been established to pray for you, your business or your organization. The Corporate Connection offers three services.

THE PRAYER INSTITUTE

1 – Private Prayer

At your request, The Prayer Institute will send two team members to your office to pray for you privately. This closed meeting will be done within your designated time allotment. The impact can be tremendous. Prior to beginning, we will ask you for any specific prayer requests. Upon completion of our prayer session, we will forward to you a written prayer that you and/or your staff can continue to pray. The Prayer Institute has written prayers for many organizations with resounding results.

2 – Event Prayer

The Prayer Institute team will come to your public event or private conference to pray for your leadership team, event organizers, volunteers, and the event attendees.

We are available to pray for your team during the planning and implementation process. Let us partner with you for the success of your event.

3 – Bible Study

The Prayer Institute will host 45-minute Bible studies at your organization on a weekly or monthly basis. Statistics have shown that corporate Bible studies have proven to be very successful when conducted properly and bring about greater productivity in addition to establishing peace and harmony in the workplace.

As Christians, we have been mandated by God to pray. We consider it our honor to pray for you and with you. There is no fee for ANY Corporate Connection service. We are “taking the world by prayer!” The Prayer Institute understands and has experienced the power of prayer, and we want to pray for your professional success as well as your business and/or organization’s success.
