PRAYER FOCUS –Revelation 4:11 – 5:1-14

Your Kingdom Come on earth as it in Heaven. God, we are looking for your Kingdom to be manifested during this pandemic. You have the last say.

Manifest your reign in the White House and local municipalities.

Give us your daily bread. We need your Word day by day. You sent Your Word to heal us; to fix things; and set things right. You said your Word would make us wiser than our enemies. Your Word is a lamp that lightens our way.

We ask you to forgive us our sins. You told us to love you with all our hearts, mind and strength and love our neighbors. Look deep in our souls and forgive us. Forgive us for bowing down to the world: the lust of the eye; lust of the eyes; and pride of life.

If we confess our sins to You, God, You are faithful and just to forgive us of our sins and cleanse us from all wickedness.

Help us to forgive ourselves so we can stay in a right place with You.

We stir up the gift You have placed within us by sending Your Son to die on the Cross.

Cause the Body of Christ to stay on their faces in prayer so people will know your presence when we go out into the world.

Help us to forgive one another. Help us to be quick to forgive.

We pray for every Pastor. Strengthen every Pastor and leader of the Church.

Awake us out of our sleep and bring us back to prayer. Help us to see ourselves as your House.

Thank you for the paraclete, the Holy Spirit. We believe that where sin abounds, grace abounds more.

God, You promised to pour out Your Spirit on all flesh in these last days. God, You promised our sons and daughters would prophecy and dream. We declare our young people will dream and prophecy in this day. Send the latter rain and let it overflow in our young people and, Lord, show us how to take advantage of this hour and season. God, you have the last Word.

Thank you for doing abundantly, exceedingly above what we could ask or think.

Do it Father to bring yourself glory.

We declare that God's house will be a house of all nations. The fighting and division in the world are a defiance against God's Word. We declare that His House will be a House of Prayer for all nations.

Come O'Lord in much mercy down into my soul and take possession and dwell there. – St. Augustine
